Hancock County Ration Board To Register Individuals, May 4-7

For Sugar Quota—Registration To Be Held at All Schools In County And To Be Carried On By School Authorities—Remember the Date.

The Hancock County Rationing Board, assisted by the school authorities of the City of Bay St. Louis, Town of Waveland and Hancock County, have completed the registration of wholesalers, retailers, restaurants, etc., under the sugar rationing plan.

The registration of individuals for sugar rationing will take place on May 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th. This registration will be carried on under the direction of the Rationing Board, being assisted by the school teachers and school authorities of the county. At each school in Hancock County, the people of that respective school district will register on one of the days named above. In the Town of Waveland, the registration will be carried on at the school, and in the City of Bay St. Louis, the registration will be held at the Central High School for the white people and at the Valena C. Jones High School for the colored people.

The hours of registration at all places will be from 9:00 o'clock A. M. to 4:00 o'clock P. M. It is to the interest of the public to register for sugar rationing. Be sure to register on either May 4th, 5th, 6th or 7th, and try to be at the appointed place between the hours of 9:00 A. M. and 4:00 P. M., as the registrars are giving their time for this purpose, and we are sure that all are going to try to assist them in completing the work, without placing the burden on any particular one.

Many questions have been asked about the rationing of sugar. We are going to attempt to cover some of the typical questions that are asked relative to sugar rationing:

Question—How much sugar can I get with each stamp?

Answer—You can buy 1 pound of sugar with each of the first four stamps.

Question—Can I get the same amount of sugar with each stamp?

Answer—Not necessarily. The ration of sugar may be changed from time to time according to the total supply of sugar in the country. The ration for each stamp will be publicly announced by the Government.

Question—How long is each stamp good for?

Answer—Each stamp will be good for the period to be announced by the Office of Price Administration. The time each stamp is good for will be publicly announced.

Question—Can I save the stamps and get all my sugar at one time?

Answer—No. Each stamp is good for only the announced period.

Question—Do we each have to take our War Ration Books in person to the store in order to buy sugar?

Answer—No. Anyone may take your War Ration Book to buy sugar provided they are buying sugar for you. The mother or the father, or any one of the children, or anyone connected with a family may take some or all the War Ration Books to the grocer to buy the entire household's supply of sugar.

Question—Suppose I do not buy sugar at all?

Answer—There is no occasion for you to buy sugar except as you need it. But keep your War Ration Book carefully. It may, at a later time, be necessary to use it for other commodities if they are rationed.

Question—May I tear out a stamp and take it to the store to buy sugar?

Answer—No. You must take the War Ration Book with you and tear out the stamp in the presence of the store keeper or his employees.

Question—Suppose I order sugar by telephone?

Answer—Before the person making the delivery can give you the sugar you must show him the War Ration Book, and in his presence tear out enough stamps—not more than one from each book—to cover the amount of sugar you have ordered. He cannot give you more sugar than your stamps allow even if it has been sent. He would have to take the balance back to the store. Give the person delivering the sugar the stamps you tear out of the War Ration Book.

Question—What if I need more sugar than I get with my War Ration Book?

Answer—If it is absolutely necessary for you or your family to have more sugar for home canning, illness or some other special reason, you may go to your Local Rationing Board. They will decide whether you can have this sugar, and how much you can have. They may then issue to you a special certificate.

CAPTAIN HEWETT T. WHELESS

Cited For Bravery—Well Known Locally—Coached For Four Years By Forster Commagere

At times some of our citizens have reason to let their chests swell, when they hear or know of the accomplishments of someone near and dear to them. This is particularly true with fathers and mothers whose children have accomplished worthwhile things; but in Bay St. Louis we are fortunate in having a man who is a confirmed bachelor, taking considerable interest in his proteges and who at this time, is one of the proudest humans we know. This man has devoted his life to the training and coaching of boys.

Forster Commagere, in our opinion, is one of the best High School coaches who has ever worked in this section. For a number of years he was coach at Saint Stanislaus, and after that coached for several years at Gulf Coast Military Academy.

During the President's address on Tuesday night, he spoke of a young captain of the American Air Force who had been cited for bravery and who had been awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. This young Captain was Hewitt T. Wheless, who attended Gulf Coast Military Academy and who graduated from this institution in 1937.

Forster Commagere coached this young man for four years in high school football. He was end on one of Forster's good teams at Gulf Coast Military Academy and to hear Coach talk about "Pee Wee" Wheless, leaves no doubt in your mind as to why he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. Coach tells us that he has been a fighter during all of the time that he has known him. He was given the name "Pee Wee" because he was only five feet, four inches tall and weighed less than one hundred, fifty pounds during the time that he played football for Gulf Coast Military Academy.

This young man was a room mate of Robert Conner of Bay St. Louis, during the time that he was at Gulf Coast Military Academy, and visited Bay St. Louis on numerous occasions.

In addition to Captain Wheless, Forster Commagere has many other boys in service that he coached and it is quite interesting to sit and discuss these boys with him, and as we stated at the outset, Forster is a bachelor, but he has a fatherly feeling for each and every boy that he has ever coached during the many years that he followed his profession of coaching.

YOUNG BAY ST. LOUIS SOLDIER AND BRIDE

Thomas A. Quintini, Jr., son of Mrs. Alma Quintini and the late Thomas A. Quintini, graduated from Saint Stanislaus College in 1937. T. A. is following in the footsteps of his forefathers. He is an instructor in the handling of meats, and has the rank of Staff Sergeant. He acquired this rank within eight months after his enlistment.

In March of this year he married Miss Ethel Mae Boudin, his childhood sweetheart, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Boudin of Bay St. Louis. This ceremony took place in St. Louis. These young people are now living in the suburbs of St. Louis.

HANCOCK COUNTY JUDGMENT FOR $25,000.00 REVERSED

In Case of M. & A. Motor Freight Lines For Death Of Mrs. O. M. Villere

The Supreme Court of Mississippi in a decision rendered on last Monday reversed and remanded to the Circuit Court of Hancock County for removal to the Federal Court of the Southern District of Mississippi the case of Mrs. J. J. Morris administratrix of the Estate of Mrs. O. M. Villere vs. the M. & A. Motor Freight Lines, which case was appealed to the Supreme Court by the Freight Lines appealing from a judgment of $25,000.00 rendered in the Circuit Court of Hancock County. The Supreme Court held that when the lower court allowed the plaintiff to amend their declaration, making the husband and minor child of the deceased, the plaintiffs, since the suit could not be carried on in the name of the administratrix, that the lower court was in error in not granting the motion of the defendants to remove the cause to Federal Court at that time. They held further that at any time new parties are brought into a suit and there exists a diversity of citizenship, that the right vests in the defendants to then have the case transferred to the Federal Court.

Lieutenant Soileau of Co. B 812 Engineers Gives Talk On Poison Gases, Friday

The air raid wardens and their deputies turned out one hundred percent for the meeting called last Friday night in the Hancock County Courthouse to hear Lieutenant Soileau's talk on poison gases used in war.

An exceptionally large crowd lined the court room and Mr. A. E. Cox, Chief Air Raid Warden for Hancock County, opened the meeting and introduced Lieutenant Soileau who spoke at length on the types of gas and their effects on victims and demonstrated the latest type of gas mask used in the present war.

Mr. H. K. Holderith, a veteran of World War No. 1, brought his gas mask from the last war and demonstrated it.

The meeting was a most interesting one and Lieutenant Soileau's talk was instructive and well received by everyone attending.

United China Relief Campaign To Be Launched May 4-9

Miss May H. Edwards Named County Chairman—County Quota $300.00 Full County Committee Named

The "United China Relief Campaign" will be launched in this county May 4-9 with Miss May H. Edwards as county chairman and the quota for Hancock County set at $300.00. This amount will be forth coming because Hancock County has never failed to meet the amount it is expected to raise.

The following is an extract from a letter from President Roosevelt to W. M. Moulter, state chairman for Mississippi: "As you know, the government has expressed on several occasions its sense of the importance to this country of the magnificent resistance of the Chinese people to our common foe. China took to the field in defense of human freedom nearly five years ago. Since that time three million Chinese have given their lives that China might be free. Fifty million Chinese citizens driven out of their farms, villages and cities by the Japanese are now refugees in their own land. Famine, pestilence and exposure have taken and are taking their terrible toll of a people who prefer death to slavery. China has paid in blood, tears and treasure as high a price as a people can possibly pay for the freedom in which it believes."

What China has done for the American people and for the cause for which the American people are dedicated is written largely across the pages of our common history. Americans who wish to give concrete expression to China's valiant fight are given, by your campaign, a splendid opportunity to do so. They can provide, through you, as I understand your plans, desperately needed medicine for the sick and wounded, clothing for victims of exposure, food for the starving, homes for numberless thousands of boys and girls whose parents have been lost in the war."

The campaign is being organized county by county and as you doubtless realize China is indispensable to the United States and Americans owe the Chinese a debt for having withstood the Japanese for more than four years that can never be repaid but it is up to the people of the United States to give as much assistance as it is possible and Hancock county can do its bit which is only $300.00.

The following committees have been appointed and the drive will be launched on May 4. Publicity committee: Mrs. J. A. Evans, L. M. Gex, George Stevenson and A. M. Ellison; Prospect committee: Mrs. H. C. Glover, Mrs. George R. Rea, Misses Margaret Green and Louise A. Crawford; Four minute speakers: Rotary, L. M. Gex; Methodist Church: Dr. J. A. Evans; Episcopal Church: J. Roland Weston; Baptist Church: Dr. B. L. Ramsay; Catholic Church: Father A. J. Gmelch; Orator: Theatrical: Ed. Orte; A. and G. Theater: Forster Commagere.

Waveland, Mrs. Kenneth Knoblock; Beat 1, Mrs. Lamar Otis; Beat 2, Mrs. Selwyn Rutherford; Beat 4, Mrs. George Curet; Beat 3, Johnson Shaw.

Contact Committee: St. Stanislaus, Walter J. Gex; Bay High, H. Grady Perkins; St. Joseph Academy, Mrs. H. L. Kergosien; Ward Schools, Mrs. G. Y. Blaize; Valena C. Jones, Genevieve Daniels; St. Rose de Lima, Father Holken.

EDITORIAL COMMENT NEW ORLEANS STATES ON STATEMENT OF

Congressman Wm. M. Colmer on His Position as To Labor and Industry

"NO man should be permitted to obstruct our war industry by striking on the job. The American laborer is just as necessary to the war effort as the American soldier and he has no more right to strike on a war project than a soldier has to desert his colors. 'Neither has any man the right to become rich out of blood and tears of his fellow man.' These are the views of Representative William M. Colmer of Pascagoula, expressed while on a short Easter vacation at his home on the coast.

Little can be added to what he said. There should be no favors granted labor, no favors granted capital that are not founded as a haven for the masses. Class distinction was routed out when this new republic gained its independence through suffering and blood. Labor should be granted no more privileges than the average man. Capital and industry should not be allowed any more privileges than the average man. There should not only be unity of purpose in this country but unity of action. There should be but one objective in the United States today and that is to win this war. It can only be won by every man, woman and child doing his or her duty, making the same sacrifices according to their means, occupations and qualifications.

Congress, if it's going to protect one class of people should protect every other class commensurate with their needs and duties. Our flag flies over and protects the weak and poor as well as the strong and the rich. The men in uniform are fighting and giving their lives not alone for labor, not alone for capital but for all the people.

LACK OF COOPERATION

WE gather from the daily newspapers and columnists of the country, articles that tend to show that the proper cooperation does not exist among government agencies. Here of late, quite a bit has been said about the Secretary of Commerce, who is also the head of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. It has been charged by many of the columnists that Mr. Jones has failed to take heed of the urgent need for the purchase of certain materials, and that as head of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, he has refused to see the necessity for the country to have plants to manufacture certain products, and has turned thumbs down on the furnishing of capital for the erection of these plants.

We believe that if the head of any department, who is charged with certain duties incident to the carrying on of our war, is derelict in the performance of that duty and is taking such action that would tend to retard our progress in the manufacture of the necessary equipment for war, that person should be removed from office. We believe that these charges should be investigated in fairness to Mr. Jones, and he should either be cleared of the charge, or he should be removed from office.

This is not the time for personal feeling or thought of one's self to enter into the picture. It is the time for a perfect coordination of all forces; official, armed and civilian, and the President, our Commander in Chief, should see that this is carried out.

WATCH OUT FOR PROPAGANDA

WE do not know how many people in Hancock County listen to short-wave stations that send out Axis propaganda but it is important that they understand the tactics employed by the enemies of this country.

For example, a German broadcast to the United States on January 29th declared that "the British determine Washington's policy. Churchill requests, Roosevelt obeys." On February 6, a German broadcast to Britain asserted that "the strategic directions are dictated solely by Washington. Washington orders, Churchill obeys."

Another example, on February 4th, a German broadcast to the United States said that "so long as the mothers of the United States are so willing, England will fight to the last drop of Iowa blood" and, a few days later, a broadcast to Britain said, "The British do the fighting while the Americans carry on in the home garrison."

We hardly imagine that loyal Americans will be influenced by such propaganda when it comes from German radio stations. However, there are Axis agents and foolish Americans spreading the same kind of poison on the air.

The greatest break that the Axis could have, at this time, would be the development of bad feeling between the peoples of the United States and Great Britain. If suspicion can be engendered so that each will suspect the other of holding back, the prospect of Axis success will be greatly improved.

Let us remember that Axis radio propaganda should be disregarded and that we should also repudiate the efforts of sap-headed and disloyal Americans to create suspicion of our allies.

The boys of Hancock County are responding to the call of the nation and the least that we can do at home is to uphold them and their cause.

Nobody knows how long this war will last but everyone knows it will last until we win it. Why not get busy and win it?

The soldiers, sailors, marines and airmen of the United States deserve the appreciative plaudits of their people; they have done well under difficult and dangerous circumstances.

GRADUATION

PARENTS have looked forward with great joy to the day when their children would graduate from high school. Many parents who did not have an opportunity to secure an education have put forth every effort possible to give to their children an education in order that they might step forward and take their places in the business world of today.

It has always been a happy thought of parents to lay plans and make preparations for their children to obtain a college education, or to enter the business world. Today, the happy thoughts of these parents are overcast by a far reaching shadow of war that has engulfed the entire world. Parents do not feel that they are capable of making plans for the future of their children. It is hard for a parent to feel that a mere school child will be called upon to defend his country, in order to make it a safe place in which to live.

Many of these young people who are completing their high school education this year will be called to the armed service of their country before they will ever have an opportunity of going to college, or of entering the business world, and before they have any knowledge of what life away from school actually is.

Some of these young men will probably return as heroes, many will return incapacitated from the horrors of war, and many will probably give their lives in the service of their country.

This year, graduation does not carry with it the joy that it has in the past, for there can be no joy when parents realize that the lives of their children must be sacrificed to satisfy the lust and worldly desires of a, would be, conqueror.

Our hope is that we will win this war before these young people have to enter service and that we may be able soon to return to a normal life, so that our boys and girls may carry on and be better men and better women for the experience that we have had.

DURATION OF WAR

CAPTAIN Eddie Rickenbacker, World War Ace, has been quoted as follows:

"This war will last a minimum of five years, barring miracles, with a probability of its lasting ten years."

Captain Rickenbacker may be in a better position to judge the duration of this war, than the average person would be. He was a member of the American Expeditionary Forces in the last World War and was cited with being one of the best fliers in the service at that time. He has not been in active duty during this war and the probability is that conditions under which a war is carried on today and the conditions under which it was carried on in the last World War are entirely different. However, we must give to this great World War Veteran, credit for not being a fool and for knowing what he was talking about when he issued this statement.

Undoubtedly, he was trying to impress upon the people of this country the necessity of being prepared for a war of long duration. As to when this conflict will end, we doubt seriously if anyone knows, and we believe that it is time for the people of this country to realize that we are at war and that it may be for a long duration, and that it is going to be necessary for all to make sacrifices in order that this war may be won.

It is our opinion that the Government should exert every effort to impress upon our people, the seriousness of the situation and to encourage greater cooperation and coordination of efforts. We know that the American people, once they realize the situation, will lend every effort to do all that is necessary to beat Hell out of our enemies in pretty short order.

OUR BANDS

BAY St. Louis can feel proud today for having two of its schools represented in the State Band Contest in Jackson. Saint Stanislaus and Bay High School are both entered in Class C.

It was unfortunate that Bay High School lost the services of its band director during mid-session. However, we understand that they still have a very good band, which is being competently directed by Prof. Douglas Appleby, Band Director at Long Beach, who devotes part time to the direction of the Bay St. Louis High School Band.

The Saint Stanislaus College Band is under the capable direction of Brother Romuald. Both bands have won very favorable consideration in contests in the years gone by and it is our sincere hope that this year will be no exception.

It is quite an honor for a City the size of Bay St. Louis to be represented by two bands in this contest, and to the heads of these institutions and to the directors of the bands is due much credit.

FISHING SEASON

MAY 1st is the opening day for the game fish season in the State of Mississippi.

We feel certain that the rivers and bayous in Hancock County will be pretty well crowded with fishermen who have had to lay off for the past sixty days. We are also certain that these boys have built up a great reserve, and from now on, the green trout will have to 'strut their stuff' in order to keep away from some of our experts.

We have lots to offer to the man or woman who loves to cast a line. We have heard many discussions by men who have fished in every section of the country and who profess to be experts, concluding that, in their opinion, Hancock County has the best fishing streams in the country. We have become convinced that these statements are true. Why not try a little fishing and convince yourself also?

But, remember, if you are a good fisherman, you are considered a good sport, so during the fishing season live up to your reputation.

Firearms Registration
HOUSE BILL No. 716, enacted into law at the recent session of the Legislature, provides that any person in the state who owns firearms of any kind, shotgun, rifle, pistol, machine gun or any other weapon, must register same with the sheriff of his county within a reasonable time after the law was passed. It is the duty of the sheriff to have printed blanks for the owners to fill out and sign in the presence of at least two witnesses, describing the gun, pistol or such weapon as he may own. The sheriff of the county must fix a day or days for registration and give notice in the county paper. The owner must state over his signature if he is willing to lend or sell his gun, or pistol to the sheriff in case of emergency, where same may be needed for defense purposes. This does not mean that the gun or pistol will be taken away from its owner, unless same is needed and the owner is willing to sell or lend it to the sheriff. It is just a census of firearms in the state, but the law is positive and the penalty for failure or refusal to register the firearm is severe.

Crude Oil Quota
Dispatches from Washington say that Petroleum Coordinator, Ickes of the Interior Department, has ordered a reduction in the Mississippi Crude oil quota for the month of May, that the quota being fixed at 48,100 barrels daily, which is 1,700 barrels daily below the quota allowed for April. In February the total oil production in the state was 2,502,034 barrels, or an average of approximately 89,300 barrels daily, which must be reduced to 48,100 barrels daily for the month of May.

Candidates Filing
State-district candidates who have filed their official announcement with Walker Wood, Secretary of State, during the current week are: T. P. Guyton, Kosciusko, for chancery judge, 6th district; T. A. Clark, Iuka, chancery judge, first district; J. D. Fatheree, Quitman, circuit judge, 10th district; Hugh B. Gillespie, Raymond, circuit judge 7th district; Lester Clark, Hattiesburg, chancery judge, 10th district; Wall Doxey, for United States Senator.

Advanced Acts Delivered
The Secretary of State has mailed out to the Chancery Clerks of the state the last pamphlet containing the general laws enacted by the recent session of the Legislature. Any judge, attorney, or citizen, interested may see the new laws at the office of the Chancery Clerk in all the courthouses of the state. The Secretary of State's office force is now busy reading proof and looking after the printing of the "Laws of 1942," which will be printed in one volume, and he hopes they will be ready for delivery around the 15th of June. As soon as delivery is made then the laws in one bound volume will be mailed out to the officers of the state.

Sugar Rationing

Every human being in the United States is interested in the rationing of sugar, which begins this week, the 27th, no sugar will be sold by the retailers during the week. On the 28th and 29th retailers will get their "credentials" for selling sugar. On the 4th, 5th, 6th or 7th of May some one in each family will go to the school building designated for that particular community and secure the stamps which must be used in the purchase of sugar. For the present and until further notice each person will be allowed to buy one half pound per week. The system adopted is simple and will be easy to understand after your first contact with the dispenser of the stamps. Whether it is absolutely necessary right at this time or not it is a war measure and the people will endure the inconvenience it imposes for the good of the cause, with the hope that co-operation will hasten the end of the war.

Mississippi Was First

It seems that many State Legislatures have already enacted laws permitting those in the armed forces of the United States to vote in the elections held in respective states during the war. Mississippi is among the first states to pass such a law. The Secretary of War has called attention to the fact that the laws on this subject differ widely in the respective states and that this will make it more difficult to extend the voting privilege, and so the suggestion has been made that a law as nearly the same in all states as possible to frame under the laws and regulations of the different states be adopted. This will be discussed at the annual meeting of the Secretaries of State at Baltimore in July.

Hancock County Men in "The Service"

The Sea Coast Echo wishes to advise the parents or relatives of any of these men that it will gladly mail a copy of the paper to the boys if their address is given to the office. The newspaper will bring direct to the men away from home news of what the folks back home are doing and we hope this service will be one which they may enjoy.

WAR BONDS

JUST after Pearl Harbor the sale of war bonds increased with a tremendous spurt, but it has now dropped off considerably. The officials of the Government have been disturbed about this tendency not only because of the need for the money from the sale of bonds to finance the war but because this purchasing power adds greatly to the threat of inflation. Various plans for compelling people to invest in war bonds have been proposed but Secretary Morgenthau has suggested that a voluntary program be tried first.

The Treasury Department will ask the 50,000,000 wage-earners who receive a regular income, to sign a pledge of freedom calling for regular investments in stamps and bonds for the duration of the war. The following monthly quotas have been fixed: May $600,000,000; June $800,000,000. The drive for ten percent of the nation's total income as a minimum will get under way May 1, when all income earners will be reached by volunteer market men, directed by 108,044 War Bond committees. At present the Payroll Savings Plan has enlisted 19,599,000 employees in 59,366 plants who set aside a specific sum from their salary each pay day. This will be supplemented by State and county drives, with a quota set for each of the 3,070 counties in the country. Because of family expenses, some people, of course, will not be able to save ten per cent from regular incomes, but others, with lighter family obligations, can save a higher percentage and thus bring the average up to the goal.

Wares require both men and money. Here is a way for all of us to help.

SHIPS

For some time we have been pointing out that the real bottleneck existed in ships; that it was necessary to have additional ships with which to carry the sinews of war to the battlefronts in order to prevent those battlefronts from being transferred to our own shores. Being so thoroughly convinced of the urgent need for these ships, some thirty days ago we mailed to each of the 3700 odd workers at the shipyard at Pascagoula an urgent and personal appeal to redouble their efforts to speed about construction of these boats. We placed a copy of this letter in the Congressional Record and urged other members having shipyards in their districts and States to make similar appeals to shipyard workers. We were very gratified to receive the following letter from Admiral Emory S. Land, Chairman of the United States Maritime Commission, giving his reaction to the letter. His letter follows:

The Honorable William M. Colmer, House of Representatives.

Dear Congressman Colmer:

In days of crisis, sometimes the very best tonic for apathy and complacency is to tell the stark, naked truth about conditions as they really exist. I feel that the letter which you addressed to the 3700 workers of the Ingalls Shipbuilding Corporation at Pascagoula does exactly that, and I regard it as a distinct and substantial contribution to the war effort.

Let me extend my thanks and appreciation, not only for your splendid letter and the action you have taken, but also for having given me the privilege of reading the same.

Sincerely yours,
E. S. LAND,
Chairman.

Thomas J. (Donald Duck) Chapin Turns Poet

Bay St. Louis, many times has a right to make some outstanding claim as to the accomplishments of its citizens, but little did we ever dream that Tom Chapin would ever turn poet. Tom wrote what he thought was a masterpiece and we heard quite a few comments about it, and finally asked our good friend "Donald" to let us publish this masterpiece, and lo and behold, here it is:

Mrs. Cox was sipping afternoon tea
When Cox danced in, "Just look,"
said he,
An air raid warden makes his bow
Your husband has joined the service now.

"But think," gasped Mrs. Cox "are you Aware of all you'll have to do?"
Cox laughed: "My dear, don't be so tense,
I've made a study of Defense."

"I know the air raid rules by heart
Why, worry, I can do my part.
And that reminds me, I must go,
Duty comes first of all, you know."

He hastened to a barber shop,
"Yes, everything without a stop
Haircut, shave—a massage, too,
And rush it, please, I've work to do."

Then home to exercise for a while;
A bath, and Flossy with a smile
His clothes donned and proud and fit

Went gaily forth to do his bit.
But when he started on his beat Expecting cheers from street to street,

A trial blackout cast a pall—
AND NO ONE NOTICED COX AT ALL.

detecting approaching enemy air planes at least 100 miles off shore. Installation of these devices is being rushed in anticipation of retaliation raids for our recent attack on Tokyo. The Army now has a "seeing eye" which can see at night through fog and clouds and tell the location of the enemy planes or ships. Scientific devices have improved flying until it is 10 per cent safer now than a year ago. The War Department has just announced that youths 18, 19 and 20 will be permitted to choose the branch of service in which they prefer to enlist.

Poultry Practices For Increased Egg Production

The number of pullets and hens on farms locally is being increased this fall. Increasing numbers will not aid the Food for Victory program unless more eggs are produced. If pullets are hatched in early spring, well developed, and the entire flock of pullets and hens comfortably housed, given a balanced ration and properly managed throughout the year, increased production will be obtained.

Comfortable housing does not mean expensive housing. It should provide 3 1/2 to 4 square feet of floor space for each bird, be free of drafts—contain one clean nest with clean nesting material or each 4 or 5 birds housed, dropping boards or pit screened with 2-inch poultry netting, two 5-foot mash feeders open on each side, and two 3-gallon water containers for each 100-hen unit.

Feed for the flock should contain sufficient protein, fats and minerals to insure hens enough of each to produce a large number of eggs throughout the year. A good quality commercial mash feed plus home grown scratch, grains of corn, oats, wheat and barley will provide hens ample raw feed materials for processing into eggs. Have the scratch grain 50 percent corn by weight, and keep mash available to the hens at all times. One hundred pounds of 32 percent protein supplement plus 100 pounds of yellow cornmeal may be used as a mash mixture if desired, instead of commercial mash. Scratch grain must be fed with this as recommended for use with commercial mash. An abundance of clean water must also be accessible to hens with the feed if economical

ORTE THEATER PRESENTS "GO WEST YOUNG LADY"

Producer Robert Sparks and director Frank R. Strayer who have guided Penny Singleton so competently and successfully through her "Blondie" series, for Columbia again bring the actress to the fore, but this time without the aid of the "Bumpstead" family. Miss Singleton is cast in this as a prim school girl who ventures into the Indian country of the old west to be with her uncle.

Primarily a story of the west, the producer and director have incorporated many elements of romance, comedy, dancing, singing and general entertainment seldom found in this type picture. Ann Miller, who tap dances and sings in the hoopla of a cattle-town saloon, supplies much of the comedy and melodrama, while Glenn Ford, as the young sheriff, is more than capable in his characterization. Charles B. Brannan and Allen Jenkins are also seen, the first as the uncle of the school miss and owner of the town's saloon hotel and the latter as the deputy sheriff who always stands behind the sheriff in any emergency—way behind.

Between the scenes of Indian raids, outlaw holdups, fist and gun fights and thundering hoofs Miss Miller displays terrific ability with a background of can-can dances, and sings a few songs with the aid of Allen Jenkins.

For something really different in motion pictures don't fail to see "Go West Young Lady" this Sunday and Monday at Ortte Theater.

production is to be obtained.

A flock of hens receiving efficient management will have (1) abundance of succulent green feed all 12 months of the year; (2) regular feeding; (3) sanitation provided at all times; (4) culling when needed and (5) ample feed and water containers.

Home Demonstration meetings were held with the following clubs: Tuesday, April 28, at Mrs. Grady Welborn's residence, Leetown.

Wednesday, April 29, Bayou La Croix, at Mrs. S. Rutherford's residence.

"BABES ON ROADWAY" AT A. & G. THEATER SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Here is a picture in the best traditions of show business which has just about everything needed to bring crowds to the theater and joy to the hearts of patrons of all ages, and to the exhibitor.

For names there are the Money Making stars, Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland, both performing as well or better than ever. They are capably supported by Fay Bainter, Virginia Weidler, now quite grown up; Ray McDonald, the young dancer; Richard Quine, Donald Meek and Luis Alberni, in a small part. Alexander Woolcott, as himself, introduces the story.

For music and song, there are several numbers sung very pleasantly by Miss Garland. Songs include, "How About You," "Anything Can Happen in New York," "Hoe Down" and "Chin Up, Cheerio, Carry On." Mickey Rooney also sings a bit. There are also large-scale dancing numbers and some fine tap dancing by Ray McDonald. The finale is an elaborate production number done in the manner previously made famous by Busby Berkeley, the director.

For novelty there are imitations of the character that "would stop the show" on a stage by both the stars. Of special note is Rooney mimicking Carmen Miranda. But his versatility and that of Judy Garland is indicated by the range of the persons imitated; Sarah Bernhardt, Fay Templeton and Blanche Ring by Miss Garland and also Richard Mansfield, Harry Lauder and the Yankee Doodle Boy by Rooney.

The basic story is simple: "The Balls of Fire," a three-man dancing and singing act are looking for their "chance" on Broadway; their leader achieves success for all by staging a show which is seen by a Broadway producer. But Fred Finkelhoffe, the writer, included a number of 'new twists and the plot material is ample for any musical. The show is staged for the benefit of children at a New York settlement and topical material is included with a broadcast to their parents by British children during a preliminary "block-party" entertainment. It is at that point that the British Tommies are inspired to "carry on" by a song. Lester White created some attractive photographic effects.

STANISLAUS NEWS NOTES

BAND

The annual concert given last Sunday night was a grand success. The boys played very well and if they play that way at the State Contest they will most probably receive a very fine rating. The crowd enjoyed the novelty numbers very much, especially the Military of which an encore had to be given. The "Circus Parade" really was the old time circus parade band. The band made final preparations for the Contest which they left for early this morning. The concert performance took place today at 1:30 p. m. and the marching contest will take place tonight.

Francis Shubert won the pin award given to the band student who devoted the most hours of individual practice on his instrument during the past six weeks. Lavene Garcia won the pin award given for the highest average in attendance. There were six students who tied for this award: Otto Roemer, Paul Planchet, A. J. Scafield, Frank Perrin and Karl Fesold.

ABOUT THE CAMPUS

Jose Perez was elected president of the Coast Student Sodality Union at the meeting last Thursday in Biloxi. This was the last meeting of the Union for the year and preparations were made for the annual May Crowning which is to be held in Pascagoula on May 10. Those representing Stanislaus at the Union meeting were Dan Evans, Evans Brien, J. T. Prosser, Elmer Breerwood and Jose Perez accompanied by Brother Anselm.

Brother Roy has replaced Coach Buge in the high school department since the coach enlisted in the United States Navy. Brother Roy taught the Eighth Grade and has been replaced by Brother Florian who formerly taught the Sixth Grade which Brother Michael took over. Brother Florent has returned to class after an illness of five months.

Brother Peter is on the road in the interest of Summer Camp. He is showing some moving pictures of the last year's camp and is accompanied by Dan Evans.

The students of St. Stanislaus have been wondering ever since the Civilian Defense has been organized what they can do to help their country and now they have been given something to do. The Aircraft Warning Observers have been formed among the faculty members and the students, and the boys will go into action spotting aircraft when notified by the Army.

APOLOGY

Lower Age Limit To 18 For High School Grads for Naval Training

Lowering the age requirements to 18 years and making high school graduates eligible for appointment have made Naval flight training available to scores of young men who heretofore have been barred. Lieut. L. C. Priestman, senior member of the Naval Aviation Cadet Selection Board, 910 Canal Bldg., New Orleans, La., said today.

Mr. Priestman pointed out that high school graduates between 16 and 17 may now apply for appointment as Naval aviation cadets. Formerly two years of college work was required and the minimum age limit was 19.

Candidates with certificates of high school graduation will be appointed on the basis of their showing in aptitude tests, the senior member said. Naval flight training leads to a commission as an ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve or as second lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve.

"The present rapid expansion of Naval Aviation, and its increased facilities for training offer an unprecedented opportunity for qualified individuals to obtain flight training in the Naval Reserve," Mr. Priestman asserted.

"Unfamiliarity with aviation matters should not prove a deterrent, since the thorough system of training is based on the assumption that the majority of candidates have had no previous flight instruction, and the percentage of those who complete successfully is high."

"Students who have completed the Civilian Pilot Training Courses, and who meet all requirements are eligible. Graduates of CPT secondary courses are admitted to naval flight training at an advanced stage."

"Candidates must be American citizens of at least ten years standing, unmarried, and in excellent physical condition."

"Qualified young men are invited to get in touch with the Naval Aviation Cadet Selection Board, 910 Canal Building, New Orleans, or they may contact the nearest U. S. Navy Recruiting Officer."

IMPORTANT NOTICE To Builders, Contractors And Home Owners

The War Production Board has been impelled by the increasingly heavy demands of war production to further restrict the use of such critical materials as copper wire, transformers, line hardware, metal piping and fittings, and electric meters.

Order No. P-46 of the War Production Board which applies to the operation of various utilities has been amended. The amended order, which will continue in effect until June 30, 1942, unless earlier revoked, reads in part as follows:

"In no event shall lines for the connection of new consumers be extended more than 250 feet from existing facilities, and no addition to such extension shall be made within 90 days of the completion thereof."

It is of the utmost importance that prospective home owners, builders, contractors and architects inquire at our office as to whether electric service can be made available to any home, business establishment or other building which they propose to construct, or in which it is proposed that additional electric equipment be installed.

MISSISSIPPI POWER COMPANY

From a report of the R. R. Supervisor of all Dairy loans in this county it was found that those making the greatest progress were families who had purchased from 15 to 20 cows and attempting to raise all feed possible. The report clearly indicated where hired labor was used and the larger proportion of feed was bought there was practically no profit.

As a definite example of a F. S. A. Dairy loan it was found that Willie Ladner had purchased 15 cows with a loan from F. S. A. which is to be repaid over a period of 5 years at 5 per cent interest. At the present time he is receiving approximately $150.00 per month from the sale of milk. From this amount $16.00 per month is assigned to F. S. A. as payment on his cows.

Some other farmers making excellent records with their dairy cattle are: S. S. Moran, Boaz Jones, Mar-dice Jones.

The Farm Security Administration has made dairy loans to 18 farm families in this county. Mr. Rubel Covart is County F. S. A. Supervisor.

Protect Quality of Milk
When the quality of milk is safeguarded by efficient, careful, sanitary practice, its production and handling all the way to the consumer, and when the milk is produced by disease free cows, which are maintained on clean nutritious feeds and with access to cool, pure water, no milk is safer or more wholesome.

Milk and milk products constitute a greater portion than ever of the rations of our military and naval forces. Fighting forces of our allies also are receiving through lend-lease purchases large quantities of dairy products, as are their civilian populations. While our government is determined to supply these products where needed as far as can be done, a like determination has been expressed to assure the wholesomeness and safety of food products purchased. Inspection to this end is largely through the Federal Food and Drug Administration and is of dairy processing plants, where it is found out whether or not farmers are practicing necessary sanitation. The efficiency of the sediment tests in which milk from the bottoms of cans is forced through pads and afterwards examined under the microscope, results in warnings where objectionable material is found, possible pouring out of milk, and might result in much more drastic measures.

No milk producer in Mississippi wants to be the cause of government action against plants. No producer wants to furnish our fighting forces or those of our allies anything but wholesome milk products. No producer wants to sell anywhere any unwholesome food products.

The following rules for the production of wholesome milk should be observed scrupulously: 1. Keep only healthy cows having sound udders. 2. Keep cows clean. 3. Cows should be milked in a clean, dust-free, odorless milking barn. 4. Milkers should be clean and free of communicable diseases. They should milk with dry, clean hands. 5. Before beginning to milk, wash thoroughly and dry the udder, teats, flank and thigh of each cow. 6. Use only milk pails and other dairy utensils that are seamless or which have seams thoroughly and smoothly soldered. Do not use lard and the like for handling milk. 7. Perforated disk-cotton-pad drainers are the only desirable kind. 8. Rinse all dairy utensils in cold or tepid water; wash in hot water using greaseless cleansers; steam scald, or rinse thoroughly with chemicals sterilizing solutions. Sterilize again similarly immediately preceding each use. 9. Do not use milk utensils for any other purpose. 10. Remove milk from barn immediately and do not store in contact with off-flavors and odors, which milk absorb readily. 11. Cool milk to as low temperatures as practicable as quickly after being drawn as possible. If refrigeration is available bring down below 50 degrees otherwise the temperature of coldest water available. Store milk at low temperature while it is held on the farm, and deliver to the consumer or processor as quickly as practicable. 12. Apply such of these rules as are applicable for producing and handling market milk in the home.

Garden Insect Control
Watch for insects in the garden. One bug killed now will save many plants later in the year. Colorado potato beetles attack potato and tomato plants as soon as they are well out of the ground. For control, dust with 1 pound of calcium arsenate mixed with 7 pounds hydrated lime or flour, or spray with 6 teaspoons lead arsenate in 1 gallon of water. Mexican bean beetles begin eating bean plants as soon as the fourth leaf is formed. Dust plants with one-half to three-fourths percent derris or a mixture of 1 part Cryolite and 3 parts talc or flour (not lime), hitting under side of leaves. Control plant lice or aphids on cabbage, turnips, English peas and other crops by spraying plants thoroughly with 1½ teaspoon of nicotine sulphate added to 1 gallon of water in which one 1-inch cube of soap has been dissolved, or dust with 1 percent derris. Cutworms can destroy tomato, pepper and eggplants faster than you can plant them if proper precautions are not taken. Cutworms poison bait: Mix 4 ounces (8 tablespoons) paris green with 5 pounds dry wheat bran, then add slowly enough water to make mixture thoroughly moist but not sloppy. Scatter broadcast in afternoon.

Produce Sirup as Sugar Substitute
A gallon of sorghum sirup contains equivalent of 7 to 8 pounds of cane sugar. A crop of 200 to 300 gallons will substitute for 1500 to 2500 pounds of sugar. Plant Japanese seeded ribbon cane (as Honey and Honey Drip), African (as Hodo and Iceberg), or Gooseneck in April and May, on light sandy loam soil. Use planter sorghum plates; plant 6 to 9 pounds of seed to the acre in rows 3½ feet apart, in April and May. Select field convenient to mill, to save time and labor next fall. Hoe and cultivate to thin and keep down weeds and grass.

Save all sirup cans and friction tops available. You may want barrels, half-barrels and kegs, to supplement cans. Everyone should keep in mind now such possible shortage of containers.

In planting sorghum for sirup include enough for silage, if you have five or more milk cows. Grow sorghum for silage in same way as for sirup. Field should be convenient to silo to reduce labor costs. If you have dairy or beef cattle and do not have silo, plant crop and obtain blueprint or specifications for construction of trench, box-type, or other silo, through this office.

Hancock County Ration Board To Register Individuals, May 4-7

permitting you to buy a specified amount of sugar for a specified purpose. You will not need to use the War Ration Book or Books in buying sugar with this certificate.

Question—What do I do if my War Ration Book is lost, stolen, destroyed, or mutilated?

Answer—Report the facts to the Local Rationing Board at once.

Question—Can I send my War Ration Book home to my family to use?

Answer—No. Your Ration Book is issued to be used by or for you. The sugar it permits you to buy is intended to be used by you or by the family of which you are a member and with whom you live.

Question—Do these War Ration Stamps entitle me to get sugar for nothing?

Answer—No. They only entitle you to buy sugar. They determine the amount of sugar you or anyone else may buy.

Question—Do I have to buy sugar because I have a War Ration Book?

Answer—No. The War Ration Book gives you the right to buy certain amounts of sugar. If you do not need sugar do not buy it.

Question—If my family has enough stamps can we buy more than 2 pounds of sugar at a time?

Answer—Yes. You can buy as much sugar as your family's stamps entitle them to in the period during which these stamps are valid.

Question—I make candy and cakes and sell them to make money. How can I get sugar I need for these?

Answer—Apply and register at the Local Rationing Board. They may give you a special certificate to use to get the sugar you are allowed for your business.

Question—I live in a boarding house. May I have a book just the same?

Answer—Yes. You May.

Question—Who may register?

Answer—Every person should register for War Ration Book One even if that person does not use or want any sugar. Every head of a family unit or household, who shall register for himself or herself and for the members of the family related by blood or marriage who subsist at the common table.

Question—How do college students register?

Answer—Those over 18 and away from home at college will register there. Those under 18 will be provided for in the family-unit registration.

Question—What is the maximum amount of sugar allowable to each domestic consumer?

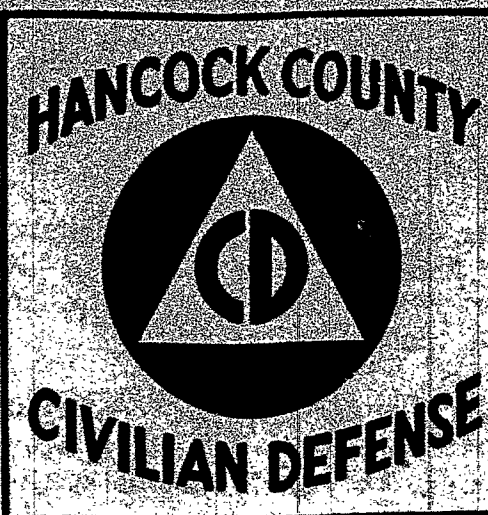

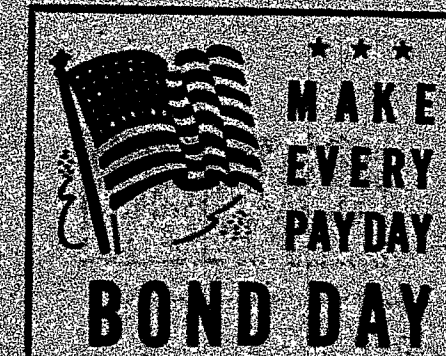

Answer—Two pounds per person. In filling out the application the registrant must disclose the quantity on hand. If 2 pounds is admitted, the stamps will be issued in toto for the series of 28. If more than two pounds is already in possession of applicant the book is issued but a stamp detached for every pound in excess of two. If more than six pounds are already owned, no stamps are issued until the quantity is consumed and at that time the consumer must apply for sugar to the local Rationing Board. If applicant is registering on behalf of a family unit the same computation is made for each individual in the family group. In other words, if three people compose a group, two pounds is allowed for each, or six pounds in all. If the application discloses 15 pounds, the allowance of two pounds per person is multiplied by three. This represents six pounds allowed. This is subtracted from 15, leaving nine pounds "excess" sugar. Ration Books are eligible for each of the three persons and the first three stamps in each book will be removed by the Registrar and the remainder delivered. The detached stamps will be affixed to cards; all the No. 1 stamps on one card, all the No. 2's on another and the No. 3's on a third card. This procedure should be uniformly observed by all registrants.

Open House At Local Hospital, May 12, To Be Observed

As is the annual custom throughout the United States, the birthday of Florence Nightingale, May 12th, will be celebrated with fitting exercises everywhere.

Miss Nightingale who glorified the nursing profession and whose fame in this great humanitarian work is so well known, is best remembered by the open house which is kept in most hospitals throughout the country on May 12th.

In Bay St. Louis, this is the day on which the Kings Daughters and Sons Circle who operate the local hospital, hold open house at the hospital from two until five o'clock and when the many friends and patrons who call remember the hospital with gifts of useful articles necessary in the every-day operation of the institution. This year's plans are more necessary than any other year and it is hoped that everyone will be generous as possible to the hospital which plays such an important part in Bay St. Louis, catering to every and anyone who might be brought there for treatment.

GARDENS FOR VICTORY

THE 1942 Food for Freedom goal is 5,760,000 vegetable gardens. With the slogan Vegetables for Vitality and Victory, the garden drive goes forward in Hancock County.

1. Home Gardens, which promote (a) health and efficiency of every member of the family;

(b) good family food habits; (c) thrift in marketing; (d) conservation of labor materials and transportation facilities; and

(e) high family morale.

2. School and community gardens, which promote (a) an effective school lunch program;

(b) acquisition of a community supply program for emergency mass feeding;

(c) character development in the community through all-out cooperation; and

(d) community solidarity and morale.

Information on gardening and on the preservation and conservation of foods is available from County Agent C. C. Stone; Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Eleanor Smith; Civilian Defense Office.

Storage and preservation of surplus commodities should be studied. The possibility of a community cany in connection with the community garden should be discussed by your local Council.

Precautions should be taken not to waste seed, space, or effort. Gardens should not be attempted unless sunlight and space are adequate and the gardeners are equipped with the necessary information about soil seed, fertilizer, tools and labor.

The general objectives of all garden activities are: 1. to keep down the demand on the general food market; 2. to furnish families with abundant vitamins and minerals at low cost; 3. to release commercially grown and canned foods for city populations, and for the armed forces, and for lend-lease purposes; and 4. to promote morale and community spirit.

The Garden Club is sponsoring Victory Gardens in Bay St. Louis and as an incentive is featuring an exhibit of vegetables along with the flower show this week.

The following people already have their gardens well under way:

Mr. A. G. Favre; Mrs. A. A. Kergosien, Mr. Walter Dupaquier, Mrs. Adeline Knoblock, Mrs. Charles Kehoe, Miss Louise Crawford, Mrs. Louis Pate, Mrs. F. R. Curran, Mrs. Gladys Chapman, Mrs. Rhea Bonck, Mr. Sam Meyer, Mr. Rene de Montluzin, Mrs. Max Kohler, Mr. Chas. P. Jones, Mrs. Gayle Aiken, Mrs. Tom Boyd, Mrs. Roland Weston, Mrs. Ken Thompson, Mrs. Elben Rau, Mr. W. A. McDonald, Mrs. C. A. Breath, Mr. Frank Cassidy, Mrs. Roger Boh, Mrs. A. F. Fournier, Mrs. Scott Morrill, Mrs. Douglas Bourgeois.

We feel sure there are many more gardens of which we have no record. Anyone having a plot, no matter how small, whose name is not listed above we will appreciate very much your letting us have it.

One of the biggest projects along this line is that School Garden and Canning Center for the School Lunch Program in Hancock County. This is located at Kilm and is a community garden for the whole county under the supervision of Miss Caro Weston. They already have approximately 10 acres under cultivation.

The air raid wardens turned out in full force last Friday night to hear Lt. Soulieu's lecture on Gas Defense.

At the request of Mr. Horace L. Kergosien, the registration of fire arms and ammunition will be handled through this office during the week of May 11th through 16th.

The Girl Scouts of Troop I are asking everyone to save all cancelled postage stamps for them. The dye derived from these stamps contribute to the support of six beds in Queen's Hospital London. The girls will call for them if notified.

He also says our quota has been raised from $11,000 to $16,000. To raise this additional amount a drive is under way asking every employer, having more than 2 people employed, to urge each employee, to give 10 per cent of his salary each month to buy bonds.

This office closes at noon on Saturdays from now on.

Personal and General

ATTEND GARDEN CLUB MEETING IN JACKSON

On last Friday, Mrs. Leo Seal, President, Mrs. L. T. Boyd, Treasurer, Mrs. Max Kohler and Mrs. Roland Weston, all interested officers and members of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club, motored with Mr. Roland Weston to Jackson to attend the one-day convention of the Garden Clubs of Mississippi held there.

Mrs. Harris Barksdale and Mrs. J. M. Holman, of Jackson, were elected president and secretary and the city of Vicksburg was selected as the scene of the 1943 convention.

With fifty delegates expected, the attendance at this convention was the largest ever registered with two hundred and forty-three delegates and Floyd Brallier, garden columnist for The Commercial Appeal, was the principal speaker at the luncheon held in the Edwards Hotel.

Mr. Brallier gave the delegates advice concerning various garden problems. His address was principally concerned with the importance of garden clubs' improving and making famous the communities in which they are located. He urged delegates to plant some flower which would make their respective towns pilgrimage cities.

Outstanding among the facts revealed through the committee reports were the statements that the garden clubs of the state have gone "all out for defense," the Mississippi club having bought $350 worth of war savings bonds, and the circles throughout the state having followed a similar program.

It was revealed that the state clubs are carrying on a beautification program at the army camps throughout Mississippi.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moylan Stewart of Joplin, Missouri, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their only daughter, Mary Jane, to Mr. John Terres Edwards, son of Mrs. Edwin Witz Edwards and the late Mr. Edwards of Gulfport.

The news of the marriage of these young people will be of wide-spread interest, Miss Williams a graduate of Gulf Park College, and Mr. Edwards a graduate of a well known family along the Gulf Coast.

The wedding will be solemnized on Saturday, May 16th at ten o'clock in St. Peter's Catholic Church, Joplin, Missouri, with a reception immediately after at the Oak Hill Golf Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Seal were members of the receiving line of a large and lovely cocktail party given Sunday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sidney Bauman at their West Beach home in Gulfport for delegates and their wives who are on the Coast to attend the convention of Louisiana Bankers' Association which was held at Edgewater this week.

LIBRARY BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED TUESDAY

The largest crowd ever to attend a Library Birthday celebration heard Mrs. John Gayle Aiken, Jr., speak on "The Psychology of Dreams" at the Episcopal Parish House on Tuesday afternoon.

Given by the Hancock Library Board, the eighth birthday celebration of the Hancock County W. P. A. Library brought out an unusually large gathering and nice sum was realized from the silver offerings received.

Mrs. John Gayle Aiken, Jr., who specialized in a course in psychology at Tulane University, charmed her audience with an interesting explanation of the various types of dreams we have and the effect of the subconscious mind on dreams.

A profusion of spring flowers decorated the Parish House and from a table handsome with crystal and lace, a large green and white iced birthday cake was cut and served with punch to those attending by Mrs. John Weston and the members of the Library Board.
